

CUBA

387

CAMAGUEY PROVINCE BOUNDARY CHANGES ANNOUNCED

[Article by Ariel Garcia Suarez; Havana, Granma, Spanish, 4 September 1970, p 2]

Camaguey -- It was announced here today that under its new structure, this province now is composed of 10 regions. The municipalities of Jatibonico and Arroyo Blanco were transferred to Las Villas Province and the Amancio Rodriguez region to Oriente Province; also the new region Esmeralda was created; thus the provincial make-up of Camaguey has undergone changes.

The 10 regions under the new structure are: Camaguey (City), Triangulo, Guaimaro, Florida, Esmeralda, Ciego de Avila, Moron, Vertientes, Santa Cruz del Sur, and Nuevitas.

As for the sugar industry, the Ciego de Avila region will now have three sugar centrals: the Venezuela, Ecuador, and Orlando Gonzalez. The Brasil central will be part of the new region of Esmeralda; the Florida region remains with four sugar centrals: the Argentina, Ignacio Agramonte, Carlos Manuel de Despedes, and Republica Dominicana.

The remaining sugar industry units making up the 21 of Camaguey Province are the Haiti and Candido Gonzalez in Santa Cruz del Sur; the Enrique Varona, Bolivia, Ciro Redondo, Patria, Maximo Gomez, and Primero de Enero in Moron; the Alfredo Alvarez Mola and Siboney in the Triangle; the Panama in Vertientes; and the Sierra de Cubitas and Noel Fernandez in Nuevitas.

The Uruguay central of Jatibonico was transferred to the jurisdiction of Las Villas Province, and the Colombia and the Amancio Rodriguez to that of Oriente.

CSO: 4200-P